How we use your Personal Information.

We will only collect personal information about you when you specifically and knowingly provide it to us, and we recognise the need to treat it in an appropriate and lawful manner. We take the issue of security and data protection very seriously and strictly adhere to guidelines published in the Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR). The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) is a new EU law that came into effect on 25th May 2018, and is the biggest overhaul of data protection legislation in over 25 years. The GDPR will ensure all organisations are more transparent about the personal data they collect and how they will use it. During the course of our activities we process personal information about you (hard copy, electronically, or otherwise) and we recognise the need to treat it in an appropriate and lawful manner. We take the issue of security and data protection very seriously and strictly adhere to guidelines published in the Data Protection Act of 1998 and the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679, together with any domestic laws subsequently enacted.

Churches Together in Glenrothes & District will not sell or pass your details to any other organisation or person.

The accuracy of your information is important to us. Please help us keep our records updated by informing us of any changes to your email address and other contact details.
